PUPS Events, Animals for Adoptions & More:

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL PUPS goes to VBS!

PUPS was invited to speak to the First United Methodist Church of Sealy's VBS 2017. Their theme was Heroes in the Community. Dianna Parrish of PUPS read the books "Hound from the Pound" and "Why do Dogs Bark?" to about 70 kids. As a service project, the kids made PUPS two buckets full of bandanas for our adoptable dogs.

We hope they spread the word to family and friends about the importance of spaying and neutering their pets. Thanks for the invite FUMC and great job Dianna!

No Kill Status

There are more than 350 NO KILL cities in the United States. The states of Utah, Washington, Colorado, Vermont, Delaware and New York are either no kill or are very close to achieving that goal. Come on, Texas! We can get there!!!

Condolences in Memory of Pet Crawford

In memory of Pet Crawford, from Royce and Patsy Zbranek, Billy and Linda Sweat, Troy and Aline McQueen, RC and Patsy Kleimann, Andy and Donna Schobel, Betty Gerik, Ben and Billie Rosenbaum, Wayne Brunner and Nora Butler, Grace and Vernon Haynes, The Seifert family, Robert and Katherine Henneke, Mike and Brenda Budell, John and Vicki Rau, Elrose and Ernest Baumgart, Jr., Josephine Schoebel, Jo Stafford Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Vaclavik, William and Elizabeth Herchek, Henneke Funeral Home, Reuben and Karen Koenig, Nancy and Buddy Wooten, Scott and Terri Kleimann, Gretchen Huepers.

Thanks To Our Newest Volunteers

Animal Shelters have many purebred and "designer" dogs and cats for adoption. Don't buy from a breeder when 3-4 million animals are being euthanized every year in the U.S. You can also find a pet or place animals for adoption on Petfinder.com, Petango, Adopt-a-Pet, RescueMe.org and Craig's List.
